Message from the Director

It is a pleasure to see such a broad range of activities reflected in this edition of the SDF Newsletter. I do hope that recipients are sharing this document with others to ensure that scholars and stakeholders alike are aware of the diverse and interesting work of the Forum.

I look forward to seeing Directors at May's Business Committee Meeting.

Aaron Hywarren
Director Public Policy

SDF Call for Proposals Results

The Director of Public Policy is pleased to report that a total of 16 Canadian universities expressed an interest in hosting Centres of Expertise, and two universities submitted proposals for the Chair in Defence Management Studies.

After considering all the proposals, the Selection Committee recommended the continuation of existing Centres of Expertise across the country, and the Chair was awarded to the Queen's University School of Policy Studies who nominated Dr. Douglas Bland.

The Directorate of Public Policy prepares the SDF Newsletter every two months. We welcome your comments by e-mail to SDF-FSD@forces.gc.ca. The SDF Newsletter contains links to third party sites. We provide these links as a service and convenience. The Department of National Defence takes no responsibility for the content of third-party sites and a link to them in no way implies an endorsement or recommendation of the products, services or information found there.

Events & Conferences

1 April 2006

The UNB's Brigadier Milton F. Gregg, VC, Centre for the Study of War and Society (CSWS) Director, Professor Marc Milner was the guest speaker at the Trantram Heritage Trust's annual fund-raising dinner in Sackville New Brunswick. His presentation was entitled "HMCS Sackville: The Last of the Many, Your Ship!" For more information, please contact Lee Windsor at lwindsor@unb.ca.

1 April 2006

The Centre for Security and Defence Studies (CSDS) at Carleton University presented "The Value for Canada of Canada-Australia-New Zealand Collaboration at the United Nations" with Allan Rock, Canada's Ambassador to the UN. The event was co-Sponsored by the Australian High Commission and Foreign Affairs Canada. For further information, contact David Mendeloff at dmendelo@ccs.carleton.ca.

Your SDF: Maureen Bartram

Maureen Bartram started at the Centre for International Relations at Queen's University as the Administrator in 2003, and it has been an interesting and busy 3 years, becoming familiar with the Centre and the SDF community. Prior to coming to the Centre, she administered a joint Queen's-CIDA international democracy project. In a one-person administrative office, there are a wide range of responsibilities from the daily paperwork to managing publications and arranging the Centre's events. One of the pleasures of working at the Centre is the diversity of people Maureen has the opportunity to meet and work with. She enjoys the planning of conferences, workshops and events that the Centre hosts.

3 April 2006

The Centre d'études des politiques étrangères et de sécurité (CEPES) at the Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM), along with the Chaire de recherche du Canada en politiques étrangère et de défense canadiennes hosted a lunch conference entitled: "Le multilatéralisme en crise" at UQAM. David Malone, Assistant Deputy Minister at Foreign Affairs, Ben Rowsell, Canadian diplomat and Alex Macleod, the CEPES Director, were keynote speakers.

5-6 April 2006

In cooperation with the Arthur V. Mauro Centre for Peace and Justice, University of Manitoba, the Harry S. Truman Research Institute, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, and the Panorama Centre for the Dissemination of Democracy in Ramallah, the Centre for Defence and Security Studies, University of Manitoba, organized Phase II of a three-phase study on "Models for Third Party Peace Operation Intervention into the Israeli-Palestinian conflict in Jerusalem" held at the Truman Institute, Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Contact Pat Kruchak at cdssum@cc.umanitoba.ca for information.

The Canadian American Strategic Review at Simon Fraser University

The Canadian American Strategic Review (CASR) is an electronic publication edited by Simon Fraser University. The site features sections on Policy, the Canadian Forces in Kandahar, Background Bulletins, and In Detail, a section examining defence technologies and procurement practices. A Modest Proposal suggests alternative options for policy and acquisitions. In addition, the site includes a section entitled DND 101 - A Visual Guide to the Canadian Forces. DND 101 catalogues significant CF equipment and systems. Divided into Land, Air, and Naval forces, each segment features illustrations and a brief description of the major weapon systems.

For further information, please visit: <http://www.sfu.ca/casr/101-0intro.htm>

6 April 2006

The Centre for Security and Defence Studies Speaker Series presented "The Current Situation in Iraq and Prospects for the Future" with Howar Ziad, Iraq's Ambassador to Canada, at Carleton University. ### SDF Special Projects: NDHQ Briefing Tours

Based on Special Project requests from the SDF Centres at the University of Manitoba and the Université du Québec à Montréal along with the Université de Montréal and Université Laval, the Directorate of Public Policy hosted two day-long briefings for students at National Defence Headquarters.

On 15 February 2006, 15 students from the University of Manitoba, in addition to a small number of students from Carleton University and Queen's University received briefings from various members of the Policy Group and Canadian Forces personnel. Two days later, on 17 February, some 45 graduate students from Université du Québec à Montréal, Université de Montréal, and Université Laval visited Ottawa for similar briefings.

These full-day events offered in-depth analysis on a wide range of topics such as arms and proliferation control, terrorism and Canadian Forces operations.

Chair in Defence Management Studies: Washington D.C. Field Trip

In February 2006, three students (Ryan King, Kate McManus and Trevor Sinker) from the Master of Public Administration, specialization in Defence Management program, at Queen's University went on a field trip in Washington, D.C. sponsored by the School of Policy Studies. This year, students met with officials at the Canadian Embassy, the World Bank Group, and the International Monetary Fund.
